The Federation of Piling Specialists (FPS) Awards are returning for a seventh year to celebrate the outstanding achievements of individuals and companies within the ground engineering industry.

Due to the popularity and rapid growth of this flagship industry event, this year's ceremony will take place at a new, luxury venue, the 5-star JW Grosvenor House Hotel located on London's prestigious Park Lane.

We are delighted to announce that one of the UK's most respected comedians, Simon Evans, will host the ceremony alongside FPS Chair, John Chick, in front of a 300-strong audience featuring the movers and shakers of the geotechnical industry.

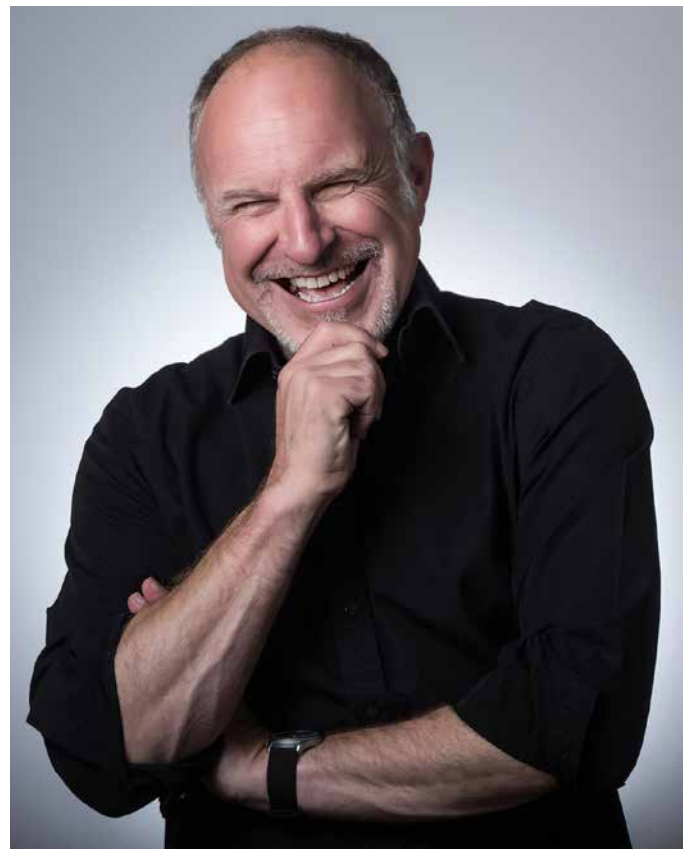

The event will feature a Prosecco drinks and canapé reception, three course meal including tea, coffee and petit fours and an exclusive After Party, so guests can enjoy live musical entertainment and dancing until the early hours of the morning.

Tickets are available to purchase for £175 for members, and £200 for non-members (prices exclude VAT). Tables seat up to 12 delegates.

■ ABOUT THE HOST: SIMON EVANS

Simon is one of the UK's most respected and established comedians. He's a regular on TV and radio having appeared on Live at the Apollo, Michael McIntyre's Comedy Roadshow, Mock the Week, Question Time and Stand Up for the Week. He also has a regular BBC Radio 4 series, Simon Evans Goes to Market, which has audiences delighting in his witty and insightful take on the unpromising comic territory of commodities, trading and wealth.

Simon is the only comedian to have appeared on both University Challenge: The Professionals, and Celebrity Mastermind, which he won on his specialist subject of Sir Ernest Shackleton.
